This property is located in the Cerro Joya national park in the Province of Veraguas. It is comprised of land that is both Titled and Right of Possession and has about 3km of coast.

Part of the coastal part of the property forms a natural marina where 30-40 boats could be anchored, and many more parked with the construction of boat slips.

Two hours away by boat from Isla Coiba.

Plenty of fresh water.

The nearest road and electric access is 5 km away.

This property is ideal for a ecological development based around it's pristine natural beauty, it's world class fishing, and it's proximity to Isla Coiba.

There are few properties like this remaining around the world.
